Tribute from Carolyn Tipler

Relation: As a farmer extraordinaire

Very sad to hear of John's passing. John was recommended to me by my neighbor when I needed some field work done. Ofcourse he did a great job on that particular task and several more after that. He was a great story teller and I learned lots of the history of the area and its characters from him. Simply one of those people you are especially glad to have known, I think he will be fondly remembered by many. Deepest sympathies to all his family.

Tribute from Bill & Joyce Mylymok

Relation: Former neighbour and friend

Dear Family: What a wonderful obituary to a deserving fellow. Although not a pioneer, like his father, he was certainly a man of the land and put his touch on the neighbourhood. Marjorie is/was my friend and I remember her spending summers cooking for the McGibbon men. Rest in peace, John.

Relation: family friend and neighbour

Dear Darcy, Mary, Andrew and family,
On behalf of 'the Smith family', Tammy, Tim & Diane Smith, Rhonda Soare and Eilleen Wanke (Smith, sister of late Roy Smith & Joe Smith), we send our condolences and love. I'm sure Roy & John will be playing some pranks in Heaven now, and Dad (Joe) may just help them out. Best regards from us all.

Tribute from Stuart Lebeck

Relation: I met John through Andy

I am happy that I was able to meet John with Andy. The two came to our place and helped me with some tractor problems. There was a lot of laughs, and a lot of respect from Andy to his Dad, and from his Dad to Andy, as we BSd our way through most of a day. Sorry for your loss McGibbons.

Tribute from Ed & Mickie Schmalz

Relation: Neighbour

Mickie and I would like to express our deepest sympathy for your loss to wife Wilma and children and to Darcy, Mary, Andy, (especially Ross & Roddy),& their families and Marjorie and her family and also to Harold's family. I (Ed) moved to the neighbourhood in 1946 so I have been acquainted with the McGibbon family a long time.
John was a good neighbour and friend, I really enjoyed visiting with him. Both of us had similar interests (raising cattle, spending time in the outdoors, haying, etc.) We also mutually knew many of the old-timers who have gone before. The world will be a lonelier place without John. It is Mickie's and my prayer that God will comfort your hearts and give you peace in your bereavement.
