Joyce, Darbi, Kim, Paul, and families

We were saddened to learn of Abe's passing from Christina Murray. He was an unassuming, caring, and gentle man. There wasn't much he couldn't do or wouldn't tackle. Our thoughts are with you at this time.

To Joyce and family. We were so sad to hear the news from Granny. It has been wonderful to see you both occasionally since you moved and so glad that you have had the opportunity to enjoy some well earned retirement together. Abe truly was a man we will never forget.

My sympathy goes out to your whole family. I loved working with Abe; we had a lot of good chuckles and giggles. He was such a great person and always took time to catch up and ask how things were going when he was out and about. Memories are the things that will keep you going in the hard days. Sending hugs to you all. Trish

Tribute from Dave and Jean Evans

Relation: Friends, former neighbours

Joyce and the Girls. we wish to extend our thoughts to all of you

We remember Abe firstly as a young man carousing this

Testalinda neighbourhood as a young man with several others who have already gone before him.

There will be a great reunion of sharing up there now. In later years he was a former neighbour on Road 18. There will be a great reunion of some of those excursions and hunting stories of earlier years up there now.

You are in our thoughts Joyce, remain strong. Memories are made of this.

To Joyce and Family. It is with great sadness that we heard from Mary about Abe. Our thoughts and prayers go out to you and your family. We only got to know Abe for a short time but enjoyed his company and positive attitude.

Tribute from Sharon and Vance Potter

Relation: Friends

We were truly sorry to hear about your loss of Abe. Abe was always a great host at gatherings. He had a mischievous twinkle in his eye, and seldom did Vance leave a party without buying half a side of something to put in our freezer! He will be missed.
