Tribute from Faye McKinnon

Relation: Through his work.

I was shocked and so saddened to hear about Adam. I knew him only as a server at the golf course on Ladies' Night but he was my favorite server. Loved his sense of humour! RIP, Adam. You were too young to leave us. Huge hugs to your Mom and Dad.

Sorry to hear of Adam's passing. Heather and I bowled with Adam for the past three years. We loved his easy going, care free attitude. Our condolences to the family.

Tribute from P Gail Whiteford

Relation: Friend of a family member, Trevor, and had worked with Adam on stage.

I wish that I could have been at the tribute for Adam yesterday. I am sure the love and good memories flowed forth, along with laughter and tears. I had a matinee yesterday so could not attend, but trust me at the appointed hour I stopped for a moment, uncorked my flask backstage and drank a wee toast to an incredible man.

Tribute from Bryan Rudelich

Adam -- my friend. So sad to learn of your passing. I wish I had been in touch with you in recent years, but I have so many great memories of you on stage, in scenes together, in the DUS playing euchre, and late nights in MacHall Max's. Hopefully I have not missed the Calgary get together to remember you. My sympathies to your brother and family. Peace.

Tribute from Dianne Goodman

Relation: Co-worker

Dear Trevor and Family

Please accept my condolences on the loss of Adam. I worked with him back in the day at ATP. My fondest memories are of Boy's Own. We had such fun and I was mightily impressed with the dude's encyclopaedic knowledge of the Jedi canon.

May the memories of talented and remarkable boy bring you comfort at this difficult time.

Trev, would love to have a catch up with you, please reach out when you are ready.

Take care

Di
