

REMEMBERING
Alice Park

March 11, 1934 - January 16, 2015

On Friday January 16, 2015, Mrs. Alice Joyce Park passed away at the South Okanagan General Hospital at the age of 80 years.

She will be missed her family and friends in Kenora, Ontario and many good friends in BC after spending many winters here.

She was born in the Kenora Hospital and educated in Kenora. Alice went to Toronto to receive her training to be an RNA Nurse. Once her education was complete, she returned to Kenora to work in the hospital.

Alice was predeceased by her parents Joyce and Frank Symonds; her dearest aunt and uncle Marion and Stan Symonds; her daughters Elizabeth, Ivy and Frances.

Alice will be fondly remembered by her loving family including son Tim; brother Wilf; cousins Harold and Betty Symonds and family and Earle Symonds; her nieces and nephews; her grandchildren and great great-grandchildren as well as her partner Victor Coulthard who will miss her dearly and his family.
