"Life... is like a grapefruit. It's orange and squishy, and has a few pips in it, and some folks have half a one for breakfast." - Douglas Adams

Here's to my father who lived life to the fullest and would never have had just a half a grapefruit for breakfast. The world has lost a very talented person. Take care dad.

Tribute from Virginia Durocher

Relation: Friend to Elaine and Jesse

Dear Jesse,

I am so very sorry to hear about your Dad. Even though I didn't know him personally, I understand about losing someone so dear to you. I would have been at the service, but I will be in Ontario, with my mom. A big hug to you and your mom.

With love,
Virginia

Arthur, you will be missed! You where a man with many tallents. I will remember all that you have taught and shared with me and try to follow some of that wisdom.

Your friend

Tribute from Koreen Scott

Relation: First Wife

Last fall, just prior to the birth of his first Grandchild, Lilyana, Arthur emailed me. Feeling somewhat sentimental, he reminisced about the early days in North Vancouver when Vanessa and Julian were born. "Those were the good old days," he said. And they were. Time will never erase the memory of those precious days. Love always, Koreen.

Sadness also for my brother Lorne at the loss of an old friend. Scotty taught him how to play guitar.
