

REMEMBERING
Audrey Lee

July 14, 1950 - May 18, 2010

It comes as great sadness that we announce the death of Audrey May Lee (nee Jones) on May 18, 2010 surrounded by family.

Audrey moved to Enderby in 1977 from Alberta. She resided there until 1987 when she found Osoyoos to be her final home.

She became well known for her generosity, kindness and loyalty. She had a great sense of humour and an addictive laugh that filled the room. It was just fun to be with her. She could spend hours just laughing and playing cards or scrabble which she almost always won!

Her deep love for her family was evident to all, but especially when it came to spending time and spoiling her grandchildren.

Audrey is predeceased by her father Ed Jones; her mother Rosie Buchanan; her son Everette Lee and her daughter Laurie Lee. She is survived by her daughter Shawna (Bernie) Michaud; brother Larry (Nancy); sister Rosalie (Fred); her brothers Robert (Susan), Bruce (Bernice) and Ken; grandchildren Cody Lee, Herminia Carrenza, Kayla Michaud, Brittany Michaud, Brandon Michaud and great-granddaughter Chloe Lattielle.

Audrey was a fighter until the end, she will be missed but never forgotten.
