

REMEMBERING
Augoustis (Tony) Tsigonias

April 8, 1980 - November 18, 2022

On November 18, 2022, Tony passed away suddenly at his home in Surrey.

He was predeceased by his Papou, Antonios Tsigonias; Yiayia, Georgia Tsigonias; Avo's; Manuel and Maria Dias.

Tony will be fondly remembered by his loving family including his beloved Son, Tayden; Parents, Augoustis and Maria Tsigonias; Brothers, Ionnis (Amanda), Mihail and Christopher as well as many Aunts, Uncles, Cousins and extended family.

Tony was working for Evergreen Sheet Metal and formerly was the co-owner and founder of the Batter Box in Port Coquitlam, BC. During his time with the Batter Box (closed due to the Covid regulations) they raised money for the empty stocking fund in Vancouver. He loved to teach baseball to kids and had a huge baseball extended family.

He loved to travel and seized every opportunity to embrace new experiences and adventures and made friends everywhere he went.

Tony has been commended for several achievements and most recently for his skill at playing ball and winning world championships. He loved all sports but his passion was baseball, then came his love for cooking and creating new dishes. In the family he was famous for his chicken parmesan.

A funeral service will be held at 10:00 am, Friday December 2, 2022 at the Osoyoos Sonora Centre. Interment and committal will follow at the Osoyoos Lakeview Cemetery. A reception at the Osoyoos Sonora Centre will follow the interment.
