Condolences to the Stuckel family. I have fond childhood memories of times at the Stuckel's home in Humboldt. Your mom navigated and managed many kids (including me). I remember making cinnamon toothpicks and tie-dye T-shirts. Your mom never had any issues with our experiments. She was a loving mother no doubt. May you all cherish her memories.

Tribute from Sandra Burton

Relation: Niece of Dorothy Loehr

Nothing you love is lost. Not really. Things, people-they always go away, sooner or later. You can't hold them, any more than you can hold moonlight but if they've touched you, if they're inside you, then they're still yours. The only things you ever really have are the ones you hold in your heart-*Bruce Colville* Bernice always was gracious and welcoming . She touched my heart! My sincere condolences to the family
