Tribute from Norm & Shirley Houle

Relation: Friend

So very sorry for your loss. Thinking of you all. She fought a really hard fight and is free from pain now. RIP my friend.

Tribute from LeeAnn and Mark Seidler

Relation: Friend

We are so very sorry for your loss. Bev put up not only a valiant fight but I believe through her cancer journey she brought clarity to many with her thoughts on life and what is important. I never saw her often but always had a great catch up when I did.

Your family has gained another angel watching over all of you now and Bev is now pain and worry free, no more cancer or chemo controlling her. Hugs to you all

Tribute from Gail Barriskill

Relation: Friend

Heart felt condolences to Bev's family! What an amazing woman, who battled for so long with beauty and grace. Always entertaining to meet up and catch up, when we saw each other....Rest In Peace Bev

My sincere condolences to the entire family as you grieve this huge loss. I will remember Bev as a very kind and caring lady, who adored her family. Rest in peace, sweet lady.

Tribute from Louisa Petersen

Relation: Friend

This is so very sad.

Travis, I know your mom was a wonderful mother and this is a tremendous loss. My deepest most heartfelt sympathy to you and all your family.

Tribute from Audrey and Mark Silbernagel

Relation: Friends

I worked with Bev at the old Okanagan Vineyards, then later Inniskillin winery. She was beautiful, a deep thinker, and funny. Both Mark and I enjoyed bumping into her over the years and having wonderful conversations. Health challenges arose, but Bev kept on going with dignity, toughness and humour. We are so sorry for her loss to Raymond, Travis and all her family. Our sincere condolences to you all.
