Tribute from Margaret Leask

Relation: Husband of a longtime friend

Laurel, I am so sorry for the loss of Brian. I'm going to miss him coming into Canadian Tire, he always had a hello and a smile. May happy memories help you through this difficult time.

---

Tribute from Ren   Boutin

Relation: Friend

Dear Brian, you have been a good friend. Until we meet again I will miss you my brother. Dear Laurel, my thoughts and prayers are with you and your family.

---

Tribute from Johanne Close

Relation: Friend

Laurel, so sorry to hear of Brian's passing. I see you have found something good even in this. You always could.

Brian was so devoted to you. I remember him waiting anxiously, day after day, for you to finish work at the church so you could join him. I expect this leaves a huge hole in your heart. Take care.

Tribute from Deb Davidson

Relation: Knew family through retirement centre, Penticton

So very sorry, Bernice

Tribute from Elizabeth & Earl May

Relation: As brothers and sisters in the LORD we met in our home for praise, worship and prayer.

Laurel our hearts are with you at this time. Many memories of you and Brian in our home for praise and worship and prayer. We rejoice with you that JESUS has taken him home where there is no pain or sorrow. Loving hugs, Beth& Earl

Tribute from Fiona Wood

Relation: Know nephew Bob (Lia).

Condolences Bob and Lia on the death of Brian.

---

Tribute from Anita Glaab

Relation: Friends

Our deepest condolences to Laurel and the family on Brian's passing. We have many fond memories of our time together in Prince George. Much laughter and fun at our get-togethers. Sad that he is gone, but happy that he is rejoicing in Heaven! - Mark and Anita Glaab

Tribute from Abigail Adams

Relation: Online friend

Brian was an online friend and sparring partner on The Burning Platform. He was intelligent, funny, and always kind and respectful even when we disagreed. I always enjoyed chatting with him about common interests. He loved his family and often said he'd do anything to protect them. I will miss his insight and sense of humor.

RIP, friend. I feel privileged to have crossed your path in this life.
