Neil was an outstanding athlete playing for the Pacific Coast League, the Arsenal Football Club (1949-1951) and was part of the Canadian representative team that toured the United Kingdom and Soviet Union in 1960. Known as 'Nellie' to his golf buddies, he loved the game and the camaraderie. In 1991, Neil and Bonnie retired to Penticton after a 35-year career with BC Hydro. Retirement allowed Neil to fully enjoy golf, gardening and watching hockey and soccer. He was influential in the lives of many and never had a problem sharing his opinion. He, along with his generosity, spontaneity and enthusiasm for life will be greatly missed.
