The Nunes-Pottinger Funeral Service & Crematorium Staff send our condolences to family and friends.

Tribute from Sharel Fraser

Relation: Great Auntie Sharel

Carter was a bright light in our lives and the lives of others who had the privilege of knowing him. His sweet demeanour, his caring attributes, his respect for others and his deep love for family served him well even though young of years. Carter was such an attentive Brother to Kayti. It was so lovely to watch them together in their support and love of one another. It was evident he was becoming a fine young man as he made his Mom, Dad and Grandparents proud every day. He brought us all so much joy. Hopefully our tears will eventually become smiles as we fondly and lovingly reminisce about all that Carter brought to our lives.

Tribute from Kate Turcotte

Relation: Friend

I may not have known Carter for very long, but the way he impacted my life was huge. Him and I shared many frustrations over Pre Calc 11 class that we both attended (rarely) all year long after not passing the first semester. I would text him at 8:45 and ask him why he was 15 minutes late and it was typically due to him staying up late the night before and having slept in, or he got side tracked by Mikey and Trace in the hallway. We complained of the long walks down to the gym and talked of how great it'll be once we get our N's, he sure was bitter when i got my motorcycle license and he would end up walking with some of the other gym goers. He pushed me to work hard in the gym and made sure i never dropped too heavy of weight on myself. When I'm there now, i can still hear him say to me, "Let er' eat!" and it always gets me through the last rep on the bench press. Carter always talked about his beautiful girl back home, and bragged that she's all his, even shoved pictures of her in my face because he was so proud and has so much love for her in his heart. I send my deepest condolences to the Byble family and his girl Keiryn, he will be in the hearts and prayers of so many for years to come.
