

REMEMBERING
Charles McIntyre

April 11, 1931 - January 22, 2016

Born on the family farm at D'Arcy, Saskatchewan to Charles and Violet McIntyre, Chuck was brought up on the farm north of D'Arcy. It was natural for Chuck to be involved in all aspects of farming. Farming was his life, on the land he loved and cared for so well.

He married Vivienne Percival in 1963, and together they farmed until 1983, when they moved to Osoyoos, BC.

They enjoyed life by the lake, nurturing their yard to be park-like. They enjoyed their association with friends in the Gyro Club.

Chuck was always concerned about our country and politics. He was the candidate for the WCC in 1982.

Chuck was predeceased by his parents, Charles and Violet McIntyre; his wife, Vivienne; his sister and brother-in-law, Shirley and Richard Lingard, and niece Leslie Lingard.

He is survived by nephew Rick Lingard of Nelson, BC; cousins Bernice Goldie of Saskatoon, SK, Robert McIntyre of Rosetown, SK, Audrey Mantoani of Surrey, BC, Jean McDonald of Rosetown, SK; special friend and companion Gisela Bossio as well as many nieces and nephews.

There will be a small, informal memorial gathering on Saturday, February 27th at 11:00 am at the Nunes-Pottinger Funeral Chapel, 5855 Hemlock Street, Oliver, BC.
