Tribute from Blaine Anderson

Relation: Friend

To Kathy and family and Don and family:

In the church we all gathered
To say our farewell
To another family member
Who has passed through that veil

I glance around the chapel
At the filling pews
Of the many people
Whose grief is true

Now the preacher is ready
He steps up to the mike
Greets all the mourners
His notes clutched tight

His words are touching
His voice clear and well
The message he has
Make all hearts swell

His assurance that the travel
Will not be long
And that up in heaven
Is a heavenly throng

Other family members wait

At heavens glorious gate
To welcome this member
To Gods eternal estate

As the choir sings Hal-a-loo-ya
And tears stain our cheeks
This knowledge of eternity
Makes our knees grow weak

A final prayer is offered
For God above
To bless the family members
With strength and love

So pray and sing for this day
Sing songs of reverence,
Sing songs of praise
In death we slumber a welcome rest
An eternal survivor of Gods earthly test
Blaine R. Anderson

Good journey my friend...

Tribute from Rob and Marilyn Lund

Kathy, Wyler and Tessa. We are shocked to read about the passing of Dave. It was a privilege to have known him as we had many great memories hanging out at the rinks watching our boys play hockey. Since then, any chance meetings that we had, Dave would always have time to chat and catch up on what was happening with each others families. He will be missed. Our thoughts and prayers are with you all. Sincere condolences from Rob and Marilyn Lund

We remember Dave as the fun and funny, quirky, humorous but knowledgeable team coach. The kids loved him and we appreciated his fun and the friendship we shared with both Dave and Kathy. Tribute from Jay Johnston

Relation: A friend from long ago

Kathy and family,

It is with deep regret that I read of Dave's sudden and un-timely passing yesterday.

It has been many years that we have not crossed paths, but that does not mean that I have forgotten about you or Dave.

I remember Dave as a person who loved life to the fullest. Dave had a way of making the best of every thing. I look back on those amazing days when Dave would go out of his way to celebrate a Grey Cup football game. Especially the one he somehow procured a set or two of bleachers and we all watched the game outside freezing our butts off. He did know how to make the best of life and share it with any one who would be interested.

I look fondly back on our discussions about military history and his love for Napoleon Boneparte. To this day, I still scour all my military connections looking for that one Napoleonic item that would delight him. Something that he would cherish.

I so sorry that I can not attend his Celebration Of Life. I will seek out a quiet moment of time tomorrow to remember Dave.

My sincere condolences at this time.

Sincerely,

Jay Johnston,
Lethbridge, Alberta

Tribute from Al and Diana Toots

Relation: friend

To Kathy, Tessa, Wyler and all those who knew Dave and his off-the-wall nature. Dave was the type of person that I was always happy to see because I knew I would soon be laughing. Whenever we got together, which clearly was not often enough, we would gravitate towards each other and soon there would be stories, opinions and life and world views flowing freely. I really appreciated Dave's view of the world because it was anything but mundane. I sometimes thought he should have been in radio because he didn't seem to like to have any "dead air". He had to fill it up with something clever and usually amusing if not hilarious. And yet he was also very willing to listen to other people. I know I am not alone when I say that I will miss him.
