Derek was a great friend to us both. Always laughing, never complaining, even in these last challenging years. We are sad that he is no longer by your side Maureen, but rejoice that he is now at peace. Praying for peace for you as you find the 'new normal'

Tribute from Helgi and Peter Leesment

Relation: Long time friend of widow, also long time friend of couple.

Derek led a happy life with you. You did everything possible, and then some, to make his last years as comfortable as reasonable. You have been in our thoughts for a long time already and our thoughts will continue with you now.

Dear Maureen,
It’s hard to find words to comfort you at the loss of your husband but thinking of you with sympathy and understanding gives you strength especially at this time.
Blessings to you and your family.

Tribute from Catherine Jackson

Relation: Friend

Dear Maureen and all Derek’s family,
I am so sorry to hear of Derek’s passing to this outrageous disease! He was too young to go and deserved to enjoy so much more of his Autumn years.
While the pain of his loss will be difficult for a time.....it will ease down the road.
Derek was a very fine man. A kind Man, a respectful Man who loved life.
Many will remember him with pleasure and fondness.

Tribute from Jamie D Hoare

Relation: I grew up across the street in North Delta and spent a lot of time with his whole family.

Heartbroken to read this. You and Derek were such a big part of my childhood and I will always remember the kindness and joi de vivre that he radiated every day. His infectious smile will never fade from my memories.
My most affectionate condolences to you, Maureen, and your whole family. Heaven gained another beautiful soul when Derek passed. The only comfort I can give is to believe that he's now amongst some of his closest friends, youthful again and no longer burdened with his earthly struggles.

Dear D man, we met in your home town in the uk as young teenagers and I have happy memories of our antics at that time. I last saw you in 1979 before you emigrated. I was happy to find you again through the Internet a few years ago and I am thankful to have a new friend in Maureen. My sincerest sympathies go to her now, and the children. Much love. Ginny

Dear Maureen and
To Maureen and Family,
We are glad that Derek is finally out of pain, but very sad that you have all lost someone so near and dear to you. Having lost Mom this year, we can relate to your pain and grief. Time has a way of helping us to remember the good times we shared with our loved one. May you be comforted in knowing that you have done everything humanly possible for Derek. He is at peace now. May God hold you in the palm of His hand as you go through this very difficult time.
