

REMEMBERING
Don Chadderton

February 27, 1930 - October 25, 2012

Don Chadderton died peacefully at age 82. He is survived by Donna, his loving wife of 58 years; also by his daughters, Anne Hildebrand, Jody Chadderton (Tom Makowichuk) and Jill Fisher and grandchildren, Jaimie Hildebrand, Ben Hildebrand, Devon Fisher and Linnea Munro.

Don had a long and successful banking career, joining The Canadian Bank of Commerce (later CIBC) in Victoria in 1949.

He met Donna Munro in Junior High and they married in 1954. Together they moved around the province as Don advanced his career. They lived in Nelson, Duncan, Kamloops, Salmo, Coquitlam, Vancouver and Vanderhoof. Their final long-distance transfer with CIBC took them back to the Vancouver area. They bought a home in North Vancouver where they stayed for 28 years.

Don took early retirement from CIBC in 1988. But he didn't stay retired. After about a year he became a CIBC mobile retirement specialist, a role he enjoyed until 1997 when he retired again and moved to Osoyoos.

Don embraced this community, offering his volunteer time and energy to St. Christopher's Anglican Church, the Elks, Osoyoos Museum Society, Osoyoos Desert Society, Osoyoos Senior Centre Association and OSS breakfast program. He was also active in the Arthritis support group and the Parkinson's support group in Osoyoos. Don's generous community support earned him the Osoyoos Times Man of the Year award in 2000.

Don was passionate about gardening, (particularly his award-winning dahlias,) photography, Disneyland and cruise ship travel. He told the same jokes for decades and was known for his laugh and his humour as well as his Tilley pants and vest and his bright yellow jacket and shoes.

A memorial service will be held on Saturday, Nov.3rd at 2 pm at the Osoyoos

Senior Centre.
