Our deepest condolences with your loss

Tribute from VT

We will miss Warren, one of the lights in our every day. Sympathy to all of those who knew him more.

Tribute from Rob

Relation: Customer

I was very sorry to hear about Warren. I always enjoyed talking to Warren when I shopped at No Frills. The first time I talked to him, he noticed my British accent and displayed a very impressive knowledge of British political events. We always used to have very interesting conversations about political developments in the UK and Canada. Whenever I shopped at No Frills, I would seek him out for a chat.

Tribute from Rob

Relation: Customer

I pray that Warren's family will experience God's comfort and peace.

Tribute from Jo Tanner

Relation: Friend

Warren, I will so miss our talks as a diabetic to a diabetic. Your life, and commitment to your job, and customers regardless of your day. I will miss your smile your jokes and the amazing help you gave. I will miss your commitment to a job well done, your knowledge, and helpful nature, and letting me vent about my day. Seems so strange to me, you not being at the store where you gave such dedication. You are missed beyond measure rest in peace my friend, and condolences to not only to your family, but the people whom you touched.

Tribute from Maria Ortiz

Relation: I just reared now on Facebook

I will miss you Warren. You were someone who always had something good to share when I went to the supermarket. I always found your way of being with us as latinamericans admirable, gracias for everything and so much.

Tribute from Peggy Isotalo
