Doug had a lot of friends who were family, including the Stelkia's and the Crucetti's, and many other friends in Oliver. Doug was best friends with the late Robert Stelkia for many, many years and will be missed dearly by Silvia, Jessica & Jackie, as well as the rest of the Stelkia family.

Doug spent a number of years on the reserve in Oliver, helping build houses and riding horses. Doug loved horseback riding. Although he was not native, he sure believed he belonged on the reserve as one of them.
