Tribute from Beverley and Ernest Nidick

Relation: Cousin

We have fond memories of the great family reunion in Dawson Creek that Cousin Doug organized and for his friendly, courtly and kind ways!

Tribute from David Symington

Relation: Husband of my cousin Morag

Doug Walmsey was a kind of man who in years past, you would have called a Gentleman. He was full of humour and took pleasure in sending us by email a joke or humourous tale that both Diane and I enjoyed. We always looked forward to that version of "You've got Mail." During his retirement, his adventures into genealogy and the past history of the Symington family led him to many discoveries, especially the account of Morag's dad, Colin Symington's escape from the Japanese in Malaya during the second world war. It makes riveting reading. We will miss you Doug!

Uphill (A dialogue if you will)

Does the road wind uphill all the way?
Yes, to the very end.
Will the day's journey take the whole day long?
From morning to night my friend.

But is there, for the night, a resting place?
A roof for when the slow dark hours begin.
May not the darkness hide it from my face?
You cannot miss that Inn.

Shall I meet other wayfarers at night?
Those who have gone before.
Then must I knock, . . or call when just in sight?
They will not keep you waiting at that door.

Shall I find comfort travel-sore and weak?
Of labour, . . you shall find the sum.
Will there be beds for me, and all who seek?
Yes, . . Beds for all who come. Christina Rossetti
