Tribute from Arnold Parre

Relation: cousin

For years I corresponded with Lisa. It was mail to look forward to.

We respected each other, which was reflected in our contacts.
Her flawless use of language while she had been away from Nederland.
In our country for years was striking, her talent would have meant a top job.
I will miss the correspondence with Lisa.

Tribute from Liz vandenbrink

Relation: Cousin

Cousin Elisabeth, we may always have lived miles apart and although we never got to meet, I held you close to my heart. I remember with fondness all the letters that you wrote to your tante Hennie (my mum). Your love of family always shone through. I loved how Facebook helped to keep us even more connected. You shared so much, painting from your father, your craft work, garden and proud moments of family times. You praised often and always made me feel special. Love to your family through these hard times. Love always. Cousin Liz and your family in Australia.
