Elizabeth Ann Lockerby

June 23, 1938-Sept 25th, 2026

Elizabeth Ann “Betty Ann” was born on June 23, 1938, in Carrot River, Saskatchewan, to Melvin Lockerby and Marion Irene Lockerby (nee Cobbe). As a young child, she moved with her family to Vancouver, British Columbia, where she spent most of her life.

Betty Ann made her home in Richmond, B.C., for most of her adulthood before moving to Osoyoos in 2018, where she enjoyed her final years.

Betty Ann passed away peacefully on September 25, 2026, at the age of 88.

She is lovingly remembered by her partner, Richard Scheib; her son, Gene, and his wife, Tara; and her three beloved granddaughters, Mckenzie, Avery, and Quinn.

She will be deeply missed by her many cousins, extended family members, and countless friends whose lives she touched with her kindness over the years.

She was predeceased by her grandparents; her parents, Melvin and Irene Lockerby; and her brother, Leonard.

Betty Ann’s warmth, devotion to her family, cherished friendships, and the memories she created with those around her will remain with all who knew her.

The family extends heartfelt thanks to Moog & Friends Hospice, especially Alli; the many palliative care aides, Dr. Bellingan and Pharmasave Osoyoos (Dawn)for their compassionate care, support, and kindness. Special thanks to Amber for her exceptional care and compassion, which brought Betty Ann comfort and dignity during her final months.
