Dear Dave and family, I was so very sorry to see that Liz passed away. Such a beautiful, lovely lady. She will be very missed by family and friends. My sympathies to you all.

Tribute from Christine and Russell Work

Relation: I worked with Liz at school with the special needs children

Dear Dave and family,
Our thoughts and sympathies are with you and the family. It was such a pleasure to work along side Liz and I always enjoyed her delightful sense of humor and infectious smile. I first met Liz at the Spinners and weavers guild when we arrived in Oliver. She was such friendly fun person to be with. I will treasure those lovely times. As a family you have had so much to bear and our heart goes out to you. Our love Christine and Russell

Tribute from Ralph Petreny

My deepest condolences to you and your family Dave.

Tribute from Arnold Jerome Albo

Relation: friend

Dave and family, We were saddened and shocked to learn of the passing of Liz. The few years we worked together at T.E.N. I recall with fondness. She loved her vocation and worked hard to make her impact on kids. May the strength and love of family and friends sustain you in these sorrowful times. Jerry and Sandra Albo

Tribute from Karen Fleming

Hello Dave and family, we are thinking of you all and the loss of Liz- wife, mother and grandmother. We hope that some peace will come in time, and that all the good memories and stories will bring comfort. You are in our thoughts and prayers, Denis and Karen Fleming and families.

Tribute from Susan Moreira

Relation: Friend

My condolences to you and your family Dave.

Tribute from Jean Tarr

Relation: a fellow teacher

Dave and family: The news of Liz's passing brought back a flood of memories from our days teaching together at Colwood School. From the day she began teaching, it was obvious she was a great teacher with a genuine fondness for her students. And they loved her in return.

In a rather grim teaching environment, Liz brought a ray of light. She and I passed notes back and forth complaining about the principal and making jokes about life in general.

One special memory that Rob related to our children occurred when Liz and I received an invitation to the Roman meal served by Rob's grade 7 class. Green peas were on the menu, and Liz threw the first one at me. The green pea "toss" was on, and I think we left a huge mess for Rob to clean up. Years later, Rob and I met a student from that class who still remembered what fun we had. That was Liz.

She worked very hard, but never forgot to laugh. I will always think of her that way.

Take care, Dave. Stay safe and healthy.

Jean Tarr

Tribute from Susan COLLIS

Relation: Friend, former colleague

Dave and family,

My sincere condolences to you and your family. Terry and I remember Liz as a wonderful, soft spoken person, who was a joy to all. Terry spoke highly of working with Liz, loving her advocacy for kids with special needs. She was a champion for all children and their families.

I hope you can find solace in your beautiful memories.
Susan COLLIS
