Tribute from Lorne Leach

Relation: Friend

I want to express my heartfelt condolences to all who are grieving the loss of a wonderful human being...Elizabeth Mann.

I met Elizabeth in the early 1980's at the ranch at McCuddy Creek. We later became good friends and colleagues as Elizabeth submitted interesting and informative articles to me as Beef Editor of Country Life in BC and later as Editor of Beef in BC.

Following my retirement and move to Oliver in 1990, Elizabeth and I maintained our friendship, often visiting over afternoon coffee.

I will always cherish our friendship.

'go well' Elizabeth.

Sincerely, Lorne Leach

Relation: BC Farms Women's Network

I would like to express my condolences to the family of Elizabeth Mann. I had the pleasure of meeting her a few years ago and spending time at the BC Farm Women's Network Conference in Osoyoos which she had invited me to attend. She truly had a very interesting life as I found out when I read her book. It was an honour and a pleasure to have known such a remarkable woman. May her soul rest in peace.

She was a very intelligent lady .

Her great personality and individuality made the lasting impression on me .

She always let me know that she wanted to live life HER way . Most importantly she wanted to stay at home to the end . And she did .
