

REMEMBERING
Elizabeth Betty Persinger

March 18, 1933 - January 7, 2011

In Loving Memory of

Betty (Elizabeth Ann) Persinger

March 18, 1933- Jan 7, 2011

Betty passed away peacefully in the company of her devoted husband, and many close friends. She will be missed by her loving husband, Maynard, step-daughter, Violet, granddaughter, Anna, niece Sandy and all who had the chance to know her.

Between war, communism and a strife-torn family, Betty's childhood in Budapest was very difficult. Escaping Hungary in 1956, she chose to come to Canada and after working a short time in Penticton, she moved to Oliver where she met Maynard. She worked many years in the fruit packing industry and met many of her friends while working. Betty was a loving wife, a great friend and cared for nature's creatures. With her zest for life, she inspired many people. In spite of her often poor health, she chose to focus on the positive. Her motto was simply, "Life is beautiful."

On her refrigerator door, a hand taped quote mirrored her view on life:

"Celebrate your life from the glow of the morning light to the sparkle of the evening stars."

Betty did not wish a ceremony to mark her passing. She is with the Lord now.

Maynard thanks Dr Willis and the many other doctors, nurses and home-care givers associated with the South Okanagan General Hospital for their skill and the kindness Betty received during her illness. In lieu of flowers, if so wished, a donation could be made to the Canadian Cancer Society on Betty's behalf.
