

REMEMBERING Glen Clark

January 13, 1932 - November 23, 2016

On Wednesday November 23, 2016, Mr. Glen Robert Clark of Osoyoos, BC passed away peacefully at the South Okanagan General Hospital at the age of 84 years.

A memorial service will be officiated by Mr. Gerald Rosner at 2:00 P.M. Saturday December 3, 2016 at the Osoyoos Kingdom Hall of Jehovah's Witnesses.

Glen will be fondly remembered by his loving wife Mary; sister Florence (Keith) Forbes; sister Olive (John) Quast, sister-in-law Gertie Burley; sister-in-law Rose Marie Clark; many nieces, nephews and many close friends.

He was born on January 13, 1932 in Kamsack, Saskatchewan and was baptized in the White Sands River in Kamsack on June 14, 1944 as one of Jehovah's Witnesses.

Glen was very loving and kind husband. He was generous, hospitable, sensitive, honest and very conscientious about theocratic duties.

Despite poor health after being burned on 75% of his body in an oilfields explosion in Slave Lake in 1973 his love for Jehovah moved him to remain faithful to Jehovah no matter what.

The family would like to thank Dr. Garnet Tarr, the paramedics and the nursing staff at South Okanagan General Hospital for their compassionate care of Glen.
