

REMEMBERING
Glenn Rosch

September 23, 1923 - September 2, 2012

On Sunday September 2, 2012, Mr. Glenn Clarence Rosch of Oliver passed away at the McKinney Place Extended Care Unit in his 90th year.

He took his schooling in Yorkton, Saskatchewan after which he joined the Air Force. Glenn was interested in ministering the Word of God since a young age, so he enrolled in Bible College in Eston, SK. In 1949, he married Julie (nee Harty) and enjoyed 63 years of happy memories.

Glenn and Julie ministered in six churches for fifty years from BC to Ontario. Oliver has been his home for over ten years after moving from London, ON.

He was predeceased by his parents Charles and Juliana Rosch and brothers Joel and Gordon.

Glenn is survived by his loving wife Julie; son Barry of Toronto; daughter Sandra of California; granddaughter Julie (Kevin) Eubanks and their two sons Dylan and Tobi; grandson Scotty (Christine) Voigt and their son Jayden; brother Norman and sister June, both of Ontario as well as many relatives and friends.

Glenn has been in poor health for sometime so it was a blessing that the Lord (who he loved) took him to a better place. A memorial service will be held in October at the Oliver Alliance Church.
