Tribute from Meghan Burnett

Relation: Friend

Graham was a very dear friend to myself, my better half and are friends. He always made us feel like everyone else when we would come to karaoke and we thank him for it. We miss him like crazy and always will. RIP Graham you deserve it.

Tribute from Neil Seidler

Relation: friend

I was one of the ones he never gave up on, and he finally got me up to sing, even if there was only 5 or 6 to listen to me. He got me up twice again to sign. It is a very hard time of the year to loose one so loved, and liked by so many in the community. My condolences go out to Joy and family, he will be missed by so many.

Relation: family

Joy and family, So sorry about Graham, gone too early. May you hear him singing with the angels.

---

Tribute from Marian Poitras

Relation: Acquaintance

My condolences & prayers to the Lamont family for the loss of Graham. Have enjoyed Graham in Oliver and certainly can attest to his not taking No for an answer much as I fought him & of course, he won. May you all find strength to see you through your loss.

Tribute from John A Lamont

Relation: Youngest Brother

Joy Lamont ,

It is with profound sadness we hear about the passing of my brother Graham, I have not seen him since he left Calgary and always wondered what had become of him after he left. We have read about some of the recent events in his life and wish that his life was not filled with tragic events out of his control. What I did see reminded me of all of the things I knew Graham to be, hard working, dedicated to family and friends. Karaoke King is a fitting title, Graham loved to sing and when sharing a room together, its was common for the radio to be on until we went to sleep and likely played all night, music is a family trait. Please know that we are thinking about you and your family, it seems like he was able to find what he couldn't from us here.

Deepest sympathies,

John A Lamont

Tribute from Rocky and Nancy Moore

Relation: Fellow dog-owners

Always enjoyed the advent of meeting up with Graham, at the Tuc-el-unit School grounds, walking his furry friend, Charlie, and having encouraging and life-giving conversations about family and the blessings of being grateful. Joy and the family remain in our prayers.

Relation: relative

Joy, we were so sad and shocked to hear about Graham. He thought about others and donated that long ponytail a couple of times for cancer. What a guy! He will be missed by all who knew him. Our love and condolences to all of the family.
