Relation: Friends

We have been friends and clients of Grant Beauclair since our involvement at Hester Creek winery.

Michelle and Matt, we are saddened by the loss of your father. We came to know Grant when we arrived at Hester Creek in 2004. We engaged him in projects there over the ensuing years. He was always dependable and presented a good attitude no matter the calibre of the project. Grant's last major project for us was our home renovation and since that time he was always available for smaller but additional jobs when needed. We always had a strong respect for his work ethic and more particularly his constant upbeat attitude. Always had time to stop and chat and of course drop by for a drink, he always enjoyed a shot or two of rum. A fine man and a good friend, we miss him too! Our best to you both and our sincere condolences. Robin & Lee Ann

Tribute from Roger and Dee

Relation: Friend first, Great builder second.

Grant was a Terrific Builder. Truly a man of his word, always smiling and we considered him a great friend who took on (with his family) two major projects to transform our homes. The kind of man who you just enjoyed being around, sharing a beer and shooting the bull. We will truly miss him and send our most sincere condolences to the entire family. Oliver lost a "Good One". We only learned of his passing yesterday and had a glass in his honour.....well maybe two.

Tribute from Dessa & Rob Bahn

Relation: Friend

We were so sad to hear of Grant's passing. He was such a nice man with a great wit and easy way about him. He did our home reno along with Matt and Michelle, and we knew he was a man of integrity. Rest well Grant. Our thoughts are with his entire family.
