Steve and I enjoyed our time getting to know you both on the social committee at Cherry Grove Estates. I know you will miss Harold Mary and like I do, I trust you will just enjoy the memories and times you shared together. God bless all of your family during this time of loss and know that friends care. Sincerely Betty-Jo Hetherington #135

Relation: Former next door neighbors

Hello Mary & Family,

We would like to convey our sincere sympathy to all of you at Harold's passing. We have many fond memories from your time spent in Regina, living in our neighborhood. Things have stayed pretty much the same here. Please know you are in our thoughts and prayers. Sincerely, Gordon & Carol Schroeder & Family.

Tribute from Ernie & Jean Meckling

Relation: neighbours on Woodward Ave, Regina

Our sincere condolences to Mary & family - was so sorry to read the obit. We have often wondered about you - where you are living etc? Too bad we had to find out this way. We are still at 151

Woodward Ave. but I think we will have to move before much longer. Ernie is developing dementia & has difficulty walking. Take care Mary - remembering you in my prayers. Ernie & Jean
