

REMEMBERING James Betts

April 11, 1934 - May 3, 2011

Betts, James Philip: passed away suddenly and peacefully at his home in Oliver, BC on May 3, 2011 at the age of 77 years.

He was predeceased by his mother Winnifred K. Betts; his father David J. Betts and his sister Jean Taylor.

James will be fondly remembered by his loving family including his sons David, (Kelly), Kim and J. Eric (Holly); grandchildren Lindsay, Amanda, Joshua, Mitchel, and Madison; great-grandson Malachi as well as many extended family and friends.

James enjoyed a long career in the forestry industry. His work led to many travels including trips to the US and Japan.

James volunteered his time as a Boy Scout Master in New Brunswick from 1956 - 1969, with Youth Groups, as a Sunday school teacher/superintendent, with the Masonic Lodge in Nelson and the Lions Club in White Rock.

James was also a Deacon in the United Baptist Church from 1956 - 1969.

He also greatly enjoyed gardening, woodworking and working with young people.

A memorial service was held at 12:00 P.M. Saturday May 7, 2011 at the Nunes-Pottinger Funeral Chapel, Oliver, BC.

Donations are gratefully accepted to the Canadian Cancer Society.

A special thank you to the Nurse Next Door group, including Carmen, Shelly, Hilda and Kim for their wonderful care.
