Tribute from Terry Schafer

Relation: I was on the ski patrol with Jean Guy

Jean Guy trimmed our horses feet with finesse and was always fun though he took his duties on the mt. Baldy ski patrol seriously. It has always been a pleasure to know Jean Guy and we will miss him.

Tribute from Duane Hamm

Relation: Aquaitance

My wife Katherine and I first met Jean-Guy at Bob and Esther Minty's place when he was shoeing their horses. He was bent over with a big smile on his face. We moved up to the Mccuddy Ranch to build our house and found out the Langlois' had built one of the first houses in that area. I was also so glad to see him when he came to the Post Office to say hello.

Julie our heartfelt sympathies to you and Gabe and Cody.There are some many wonderful memories that we shared over almost forty years. Our kids, our favourite farrier who we could only get if he wasn't golfing or windsurfing. We hope that time and all your wonderful memories will bring you peace. We were lucky to have had him in our lives and we will sincerely miss him. Hugs to you all.

So many memories of Jean-Guy's happy outlook on life and his willingness to accommodate our busy schedules with his farrier work. Always pleasant, patient and particular in his work. He will be missed.

Tribute from Eileen & Manfred Oliver-Bauer

Relation: Client

So saddened and shocked to hear of Jean-Guy's passing. Didn't know he was ill, as we haven't had any horses for some years now, so lost touch. He was our farrier for 20+ years, always did a great job, always on time, never had a horse throw a shoe! And of course, it was always fun to have a visit with him while he was shoeing the horse, funny, upbeat ... Our condolences go out to his family, he will be missed.

Dear Julie and family, I am so sorry for your loss. We loved Jean-Guy and I can still hear his joyous laugh; I was so happy to find out he was golfing every day he could. He always told stories about all the sports he was into and the great family he has.

Tribute from Mary, Dora and Luke Simonin

Relation: 20 plus years as our farrier

Dearest Julie, We had heard you were facing challenging times so it was not a complete surprise to see that lovely smiling face of his in the paper.But we are sad about it and wish you and your boys some serenity and peace amongst it all. We always enjoyed seeing him. Loved that laugh of his. Teased him about the strength of the wind when he had his board with him... if he'd be leaving early! His energy shots of dates, he swore by them. He had great stories. Some of his early adventures in Naramata, most memorably skinny swimming in the waters off the Stone House. Our experience of him was as a good man with integrity, humour and kindness. Thank you for posting such a great picture. We are thinking of you and wishing you well.
