Tribute from Joey & Judy Schweitzer

Relation: Friend

We are very sorry to hear of your loss Pat. Jim will be missed by all who knew him. May the warm memories of your life with Jim, keep you company through your time of sorrow. God bless you and your family.

Tribute from Gary/Ann Howard

Relation: Friend

We are so sorry to hear this news. Our condolences to you and your family Pat. Jim will be missed by so many - we loved his quick wit and zest for life. I remember him being so proud when he got his motorcycle and was looking forward to his adventurous trip. A very good, fair man, loved by many. We appreciated his caring and concern for all his tenants at the 4-plex and enjoyed seeing him regularly when we lived there. We are so sorry for your loss.
Gary and Ann Howard

Tribute from Kerri Freding- Hinsburg

Relation: friend

Jim will be deeply missed by all who knew him. We loved his great smile, humor and kindness. He is an inspiration to all who knew him. His spirit had such strength and compassion for his family. Hugs to Pat, Beth, Maggie, Dylan, Hewitt and of course his best little buddy Dexter. We will miss him terribly.

Tribute from Beth Elliott

Relation: 'Uncle Jim'

Dear Pat, Maggie and Beth,

This poem provided some comfort when mom died; I wanted to share it with you.

Gone from my sight- Henry Van Dyke

I am standing upon the seashore. A ship, at my side, spreads her white sails to the moving breeze and starts for the blue ocean. She is an object of beauty and strength.

I stand and watch her until, at length, she hangs like a speck of white cloud just where the sea and sky come to mingle with each other.

Then, someone at my side says, "There, she is gone"

Gone where?

Gone from my sight. That is all. She is just as large in mast, hull and spar as she was when she left my side.
And, she is just as able to bear her load of living freight to her destined port.

Her diminished size is in me — not in her.
And, just at the moment when someone says, "There, she is gone," there are other eyes watching her coming, and other voices ready to take up the glad shout, "Here she comes!"

And that is dying...

Tribute from Dyan Lipoth

Relation: he was a friend of my Dad's

Dear Pat and family, the family of Art Holland send their thoughts and prayers to you all at this difficult time, my Dad spoke of Jim often to us and thought so much of Jim, Jim was always there for Dad when needed, Dad enjoyed the drives Jim took him on and enjoyed their talks when Jim would stop by. We were all very thankful Dad had such a good friend in Jim.

Tribute from Garry and Joyce Bott

Relation: friend

Our sincere condolences. We have many happy memories of Jim. He will be missed.

Tribute from Linda and Ken Nunweiler

Relation: friend

Pat, we were so very sorry to hear that you lost your life long companion, Jim. He fought the good fight. Sending our sympathy and prayers. Sorry to have missed the service, we were out of town.

Tribute from Ernie and Barb Race

Relation: Friend

Jim led an interesting life- meeting any varied challenges and thus developed a wide circle of friends.
Jim and Pat's property along the bike path was a prime example of preserving nature, and share it with others. They made us very welcome to just sit by their pond, bench provided, waiting for just the right shot of the many turtles swimming and playing on the logs in the pond.
Jim grew the best corn you ever tasted, we were always sad when the corn season was over. Sorry we were unable to attend the Celebration of Jim's life due to the effects of our medications. Jim's life was cut too short, but it was packed full of goodness, and thus lots of memories for you Pat, all your family and for Oliver.

Tribute from Audrey and Mark Silbernagel

Relation: Community friends/work

We were so sorry to learn of Jim's passing, and your loss. Mark has memories of working with Jim years ago at the Test Orchard, and of Jim's bobcat work on our property. Our condolences to you and your family.
