Tribute from Jim MacNaughton

Relation: long time friend

Dear Eva and kids, Margaret and Dave- what a shocker to see Joe's picture on this site. We started out in school together in the old primary school and he was a good friend for so many years. No one could ever say anything bad about Joe, except that he worked far too hard. But he loved his farming despite our mutual complaining, he was a great mechanic, and though I didn't have to live with him Eva, I think he was a good husband and friend. He will be missed buy all of us- fly on home my old friend- love and best wishes to all of you.. Jim

Dear Eva and family. I wish to send my heartfelt condolences about your recent loss of Joe. He was always my favorite guy, from the time I was small he always made me laugh and he loved to make me blush. He really was a gentle sole and I will miss him as you all will. It has been years since I have seen you all but I was lucky enough to see Joe just last year. Eva take care of yourself and your family. Again sorry for your loss.
