To all of the Nunes family, I send my heartfelt condolences to all you as you mourn the Patriarch of your family. To John, Linda, Brad, Ray, Lisa, and your little ones, and Emily, I send my love. What an amazing life he had, and how well he lived it! His life story of the journey that brought him to Canada to complete and raise his family and watch it grow is heartwarming. I hope you all take comfort in your memories of stories told and time spent with him. I know he must be rejoicing in heaven with all those he loved who have preceded him there!

Tribute from Lynne (Pinske)Hill

Relation: Friend of the family

To John and your entire family,

I was sooooo very sorry to hear of your dad's passing. He always such a classy gentleman. My granddad Alex Pinske always treasured his friendship in the days of their pigeon trading. I remember dropping by to see Edwina when hockey was on, and we were shushed and quietly escorted out :) He was a fixture at the arena, and probably never missed one of your games :) He was such an incredible groundskeeper. After he retired, Cherry Grove Golf Course never looked the same :) May all of your wonderful memories help heal your hearts during this difficult time. Thinking of all of you
