Dear Vera and Family,

Please forgive my belated condolences on the death of your beloved husband and father. I, like many, was shocked to hear of the tragic accident that took Joe's life and injured Vera so badly. My thoughts and prayers have been directed to all of you since I heard the news.

Joe was someone I admired for his quiet and dedicated way of handling whatever life presented him with. Steadfast and committed to his family and faith. May he rest in peace in the arms of Christ and may the comfort of Our Lord console the family members in your grief.
