Joyce Beatrice Granger

June 30, 1931 - October 28, 2020

Joyce Beatrice Granger was born on June 30, 1931, and she passed away on October 28, 2020, at the age of 89. She was predeceased by her loving husband, Donald, and loving son, Rick. She is survived by her son, Dan; daughters, Lynn and Bev; sisters, Elsie and Carol; 7 grandchildren; and 9 great-grandchildren.

Her work career included being an operator for Alberta Bell, a ticket office, and a switchboard operator for Woodward's. She was also co-owner of The Rental Center in Oliver, BC. Joyce was an active member of the United Church where she was a choir member and volunteer for the thrift store. Her many hobbies included ceramics, gardening, and reading.

Joyce was young at heart and will be missed by all her friends and family. A special thanks to the townspeople of Oliver and Osoyoos who looked out for her well-being.

When I come to the end of the road
And the sun has set for me
I want no rites in a gloom-filled room
Why cry for a soul set free?
Miss me a little, but not for long
And not with your head bowed low

Remember the love that once we shared
Miss me, but let me go.
For this is a journey we all must take
And each must go alone.
It's all part of the Master plan
A step on the road to home.
When you are lonely and sick at heart
Go to the friends we know.
And bury your sorrows in doing good deeds
Miss me, but let me go.
