

REMEMBERING

Kathleen (Kay) Lewis

December 23, 1925 - July 22, 2018

On Sunday, July 22, 2018, Mrs. Kathleen Emma (Kay) Lewis of Osoyoos passed away peacefully after a short illness at the Penticton Regional Hospital at the age of 92 years.

She was predeceased by her husband John Lewis; father Richard E.R. Warren; mother Elizabeth Warren; brothers Frank (Jean) Warren, Bert (Dorothy) Warren, Jack (Lois) Warren and Richard Warren; sister Joan Neal (George), sister-in-law June Warren, brother-in-law Arlie Hinkley and son-in-law George Woloszyn.

Kay will be fondly remembered by her daughters Patricia (Garry) Owens and Penny Woloszyn; son David J. (Stephanie) Lewis; grandchildren Andrew (Tamilyn) Owens, Diana (Mike Bohn) Belfour, PJ (Bruce Bauder) Woloszyn, Michael Lewis, Michaela Lewis and Kyle Lewis; great-grandchildren Tyson (Aymee) Belfour, Brynn Belfour, Keegan Owens, Kylee Owens, Mackayla Lewis, Mason Lewis, Isaiah, and one great-great-grandson Landyn Belfour.

Kay is also survived by her brothers Donald (Doreen) Warren, and William Warren and her sister Mary Hinkley and sister-in-law Joan Warren.

Over the years, Kay worked as a retail clerk, a waitress, co-owned movie theatres but her real job was the #1 Mom and Grandma.

She was married to a Freemason and as a result was involved with Job's Daughters/Demolay and the Order of the Eastern Star. She also attended the Anglican Church and was a member of the ACW.

Kay enjoyed travelling and went on an Alaskan Cruise, a trip to the Bahamas and trips to the Yukon, Nova Scotia and Florida. She also enjoyed handcrafts: crochet, knitting and upholstery.

Donations are gratefully accepted for the Canadian Cancer Society or the Heart & Stroke Foundation or charity of choice.

A memorial service will be held in Leduc later in the Summer 2018. Location to be announced.
