

REMEMBERING

Kathleen Kay Thompson

July 9, 1917 - November 30, 2009

Kathleen Josephine "Kay" Thompson was born on July 9, 1917 in Fairview, a mining camp near Oliver to Charles and Isabella Jones and passed away peacefully on November 30th, 2009 at McKinney Place ECU at the age of 92 years.

She married Gordon Thompson in 1939 and lived several years in Vancouver before moving to Keremeos in 1945, where they owned and operated the Keremeos Hardware for twenty five years.

In 1970, they retired to their home on Skaha Lake where they enjoyed gardening, hiking and socializing. Kay and Gordon later moved to Penticton where they spent their last years together.

They travelled extensively to visit their family in the U.S. as well as many trips overseas to Europe and Asia. Kay was a member of the Okanagan Naturalist Club, a long time member of the Keremeos United Church and St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church in Penticton. Kay and Gordon were also charter members of the Okanagan Falls Rose Garden.

She was predeceased by her husband Gordon Thompson of 66 years in 2005.

Kay will be fondly remembered by her loving family including son Bill (Julie); grandsons Sean (Alison), Scott (Stacey) and James (Anna) all of Seattle, WA and Todd (Karen) of Corvallis, OR as well as ten great-grandchildren Jeremy, Elliot, Lillian, William, Ryan, Sam, Bridget, Madeline, Julia and Charlie.

A private family memorial service was held 2:00 P.M. Wednesday December 2, 2009 at the Nunes-Pottinger Funeral Chapel.
