

REMEMBERING
Katie Greenwood

August 8, 1956 - December 22, 2021

Katie Greenwood. born Katherine Lynn Day, left us unexpectedly with complications from leukemia. She was a mother, a daughter, a wife, a grandmother, an aunt, a niece, a sister, a twin and a friend to so many.

She leaves behind two daughters: Jennifer Deutsch (Colby), Rebecca Probe (Nathan), four grandchildren: Benjamin, Olivia & Elanor Deutsch and Ivaya Probe, siblings: Charlene Day, Jan Kreut (Wayne), Ken Day, and Olga Mondoux (Rich) and many other relatives.

She predeceased her husband, Ed Greenwood by 10 days. Our condolences to the Greenwood family. Our hearts are heavy but happy that she is now in the arms of Jesus, whom she loved with all her heart.

A memorial service will be held at Park Drive Church and live streamed at 2:00 pm PST, Sunday January 16, 2022. Click on the Live Stream button on Katie's tribute page to watch.

Death is nothing at all,

I have only slipped into the next room

I am I and you are you

Whatever we were to each other, that we are still.

Call me by my old familiar name,

Speak to me in the easy way which you always used

Put no difference in your tone,
Wear no forced air of solemnity or sorrow
Laugh as we always laughed at the little jokes we enjoyed together.
Play, smile, think of me, pray for me.
Let my name be ever the household word that it always was,
Let it be spoken without effect, without the trace of shadow on it.
Life means all that it ever meant.
It the same as it ever was, there is unbroken continuity.
Why should I be out of mind because I am out of sight?
I am waiting for you, for an interval, somewhere very near,
Just around the corner.
All is well.

- All is Well (by Henry Scott Holland)

