

REMEMBERING
Kenneth Harman

May 29, 1937 - January 23, 2018

Kenneth William Harman

1937 - 2018

As Ken writes in his memoirs,

"My life can be best described as a wanderer, moving through a series of doors - farm kid-cowboy-heavy equipment operator-Canadian Navy-logger/truck driver-farmer/rancher/amateur rodeo contestant-government employee/pilot-woodlands contractor-commercial pilot-semi-retired bush pilot-retirement hobby, pickin'n'singin' bluegrass music, traveling with my lil'darling."

K.W. Harman began his wandering on this earth on May 29, 1937 in Paynton, Saskatchewan. He came to journey's end when he went through that final door on January 23, 2018 in Oliver, British Columbia - into a place of rest and peace with Jesus. His earthly wanders may have ended but his spirit lives on. His memory lives in the hearts of his wife, Joy, his five children, Kathy (Eric), Kendi, Terri (Terry), Sherron (Cliff) and Shaun (Donna), his 17 grandchildren and 9 great-grandchildren, his only sister Beverly (Don) and numerous extended family and many friends. It also lives on in the stories we tell and in the songs we sing for him.

The family extends an invitation to all who knew Ken to celebrate his life through sharing stories and music (bring an instrument if so inclined):
