

REMEMBERING Leo St. Jean

July 8, 1946 - January 25, 2014

Leo St John ("The Painter") of Oliver, BC passed away in the early morning of Saturday, January 25, 2014, surrounded in the love of his family.

He is survived by his daughter Monique (Scott), adored grandsons Tyson and Brody, his son Andrew (Shayla), adored grandsons Dylon, Nicholas and Brayden, his daughter Lori and adored grandson Nate and grand-daughter Faith, and his love and best friend Maureen.

Born in Alexandria, Quebec, Leo lived in Penticton most of his life, then recently moved to Oliver. He will be remembered as Leo "The Painter", seen most of the time in his tradesman whites. Leo was a cowboy at heart and loved to gold pan and fish. He was a storyteller, and laughs could be had listening to the tales of his life. Leo's heart was as big as the sky, hidden by his tough and humorous exterior. He will be dearly missed but ever alive in our hearts.

We will celebrate his life on Sunday February 16 at 1:00 p.m. at the Eagles Clubhouse, 1197 Main Street, Penticton.

