Tribute from Marina Morrow

To the whole Correia family - I want to send my deepest condolences for the loss of Lidia. In my long friendship with Fatima I have had a number of occasions to meet Lidia and witness her joyful spirit, her fondness for her daughters and her wonderful sense of humor. She will be missed by many- may she rest in peace. xo

Tribute from Brandy May

Relation: I went to school with her daughter, Fatima, and also worked with this lovely lady in the summers during high school.

I remember this lovely lady from my summers working in the Oliver Packinghouse in the '70s. She was always warm, cheerful, and motherly, with an infectious laugh. Such a gracious lady and gentle listener. A life well lived. My heartfelt condolences to her beloved family.

Tribute from Audrey and Mark Silbernagel

Relation: Childhood friend of Cristina.

My few encounters with Mrs. Correia go way back to Grade 5, I believe, when I visited Cristina at home. Her kindness, vocal enthusiasm, and genuine smiles are vivid memories. Sincere condolences to you all at this time on your loss.

Tribute from Marg Sewell

Relation: Friends & School Mates

Condolences to the Correia families. Marg & Eddi Nunes remember so well the fun times we had playing with Fatima & Sandy at their house south of town on Hwy. 97. The house seemed like a mansion to us and - yes - your Mom always had a smile on her face. God bless her and comfort you.
