I'm sure as teenagers we did some things that must have made your mom wonder and shake her head, but all I remember is her ever-present smile and good humour.

A nice memory.

Thinking of you on this sad occasion.

Hello,

I am so sorry to hear of your mum's passing. I didn't know her very well but I know she was kind. A number of years back I found myself to be a single mother of three and I did not have a working stove. Your mum was so very kind to give me her old but perfectly working stove. I was so very grateful. It is still working and I bless her for helping us out. I am so very sorry for your loss. I can only imagine how loving she must have been to you all when she could help a stranger in need. God bless to you all.
