Tribute from Tony Willems

Relation: Doing carpentry work for Luiz

Over the years I made a couple big gazebos for Luiz and around 5 o'clock, Luiz would appear from his orchard and would say, eh the Tony, you like some vino, sure was my answer. Then we sat down on a picnic table and talked about our early days as young immigrants. Carmi was the place where he lived in a cabin, working for the Kettle Valley Railroad, those stories I will always remember.

Tribute from SÃ©bastien Leblanc

Relation: Been a farm worker in his orchards.

My sincere condolence to Helen, Yvette, Roger and all of Luiz's family. The years I have worked for Luiz are filled with warming memories that will last a lifetime. His unforgettable quotes, glasses of wine we shared, and images of him driving his old blue truck will always be remembered. Luiz thank you for everything and I hope there is some good wine and peaches to pick up there. Rest in peace good man.
