Tribute from Joan lindsay

Relation: Friend

My very deepest condolences to Lynn's family. She was a lovely person with a very kind and caring heart. She will be missed.

---

Tribute from Eleanore Garnett

Relation: Went to school in Oliver.

I am so very sorry to hear this sad news! I looked forward every day to her cheery postings of a good coffee morning! We both used to talk to Brenda Shaw. I went to High School in Oliver and lived in Osoyoos! Prayers and Hugs!

Tribute from Diane Karpinsky

Relation: good friend

Lynne was a lovely lady and her passing makes me sad. She will be missed by many. Condolences to the family

---

Tribute from Barb Peden

Relation: I worked with Lynn and we were friends

I am so sorry to hear about Lynn's passing. My deepest sympathies to Peter and the boys.

---

Tribute from Jack Frank

Relation: Friend

It was with great sadness we learned of Lynne's passing. She was a valued employee and friend. Throughout the years we worked together, Lynne could be counted upon to be a force of positivity. She was hard working, a good listener and someone with a much appreciated sense of humour. Peter and family, please accept our sincere condolences. Lynne will be greatly missed. Jack and Heather Frank

---

Tribute from Donna Kemes

Relation: Friend

My Sincere condolences to Peter, Michael, Tony and all Lynne's cherished Grandchildren. I have known Lynne for more than 50 years; we attended SOSS and raised our families here in Oliver. Lynne always had time for impromptu visits and was always so cheerful. She gave so much of herself to others and we have truly lost a wonderful friend.

Sincerely,
Donna Kemes

Tribute from Sandy Knippelberg

Relation: School friend

Lynne, I hope you know how much you are missed. 9:00 A:M is a time I will always remember you. I miss that call every day. I will miss my casino buddy, bingo buddy, breakfast and luncheon buddy and all the laughs and all the crazy ideas we came up with to fix the world. I won't have to tell you to take care and keep safe. You are in a place where you are deeply loved and will be taken care of for eternity. Love and miss you.
