Relation: Former Student/Nurse Aide

Sharon and Joan,

My deepest sympathies on the loss of your wonderful mother. I enjoyed the moments that we had when I looked after her at McKinney. She always had a smile for me and we reminisced about the old school days. She is at peace now and pain free. May you find comfort in your family and friends....

Tribute from Deborah Smith

Relation: An admirer

It is with regret that I send my admiration too late. Over 40 yeRs ago, as a young teenager in Australia, I read a wonderful proem by Marj Piazza in the Western Horseman magazine. I loved it so much I had it enlarged and framed and it has adorned the walls of 4 houses. The poem is called Mothers Horse. It is overlooking me as I write this . My. Children and grandchildren ride beautiful educated horses and ponies and I have a wonderful ugly old hack that I think is gorgeous . My friends and I trail ride in the bush and I couldn't be happier and that wonderful poem Marj wrote all those years ago has become osmosis for me , cos I'm living her prose!!! To Marj family and friends I send my love and let you know that one little girl in Australia has endeared herself to your Marj and I am so sorry that I was never able to tell Marj how much her poem meant to me all those years ago and how it is still in my life. Xxxxx Deborah Smith
