Mona and Frederick worked very hard being self-employed on Texada Island. They were dedicated members of the Rod & Gun Club. She worked approximately ten years at the Penticton Hospital before retiring early with prolonged back problems.

Throughout their lives they enjoyed hunting, fishing and camping with their many friends. They also made many trips to Reno! Bingo was another lucky pastime for her. During her quiet time she loved to knit, crochet and her embroidery work is spread throughout the family and friends as keepsakes.

Mona was always an avid baseball fan. Her favourite team being the Blue Jays and she travelled to see them play live which was a great highlight in her life!
