

REMEMBERING
Patricia Mary Odowes (Pat)

May 6, 1948 - December 24, 2023

Pat was born in New Westminster, B.C. and was predeceased by her mother Toots and uncle Buddy Taft. She lived in Minnesota, New York City, Prince Rupert, and Oliver, B.C. She studied Law at UBC and in the sixties worked for the legal firms of Jim Argue in Oliver and Roy Trimble in Osoyoos. Pat lived with her dear Uncle Buddy, who was like a father to her, in his home that housed a dance studio for children. Together they enjoyed travelling to Las Vegas for shows, as well as to Japan, Egypt, and parts of Europe.

Pat had a genuine interest and concern for people, always remembering to phone people for their birthdays, often late in the evening. Pat was a night owl. She liked being with others and would often meet up with friends at the movies and the theatre. Pat attended Oliver United Church regularly and with an open spirit would attend churches as well. Pat was an active member of her community and a prominent fixture at many Oliver social events. Her presence will be missed by those who knew her.

A service for Pat Odowes will be held at Oliver United Church, 511 Church Ave, Oliver, BC at 10 am on Wednesday, March 20, 2024.
