

REMEMBERING
Rae-Ann Mclean

August 1, 1958 - October 31, 2010

On Sunday, October 31, 2010, Rae-Ann McLean of Oliver, B. C., passed away at the South Okanagan General Hospital after a long illness at the age of 52 years. A funeral service was officiated by Pastor Ann White at 1:00 p.m. Monday November 8, 2010, at the Oliver United Church. Rae-Ann was laid to rest in the Oliver

Municipal Cemetery following the funeral service. A reception was held in the church basement. Rae-Ann was predeceased by her father, her grandparents, and her uncle. Rae-Ann will be remembered by her mother Marjorie E. Mulcaster, Stepfather Fred Mulcaster of Oliver, B. C., brothers Gary "Ronald" Mitchell of Calgary, AB, Robert W. Studer, Gregory J. (Debbie) Studer, Kenneth B. (Rhonda) Studer all from Kamloops, B. C., uncle Larry (Lorna) Tompkins of Calgary, AB, close friend Kathy of Oliver, B. C., as well many extended family and friends. Rae-Ann worked as a motel manager for fifteen years in Winnipeg, MB and in child care for many years. She also went to nursing school prior to her grandmother's death. Rae-Ann attended the United Church in Calgary, AB while she looked after her grandmother (her mother's mother) for five years until her grandmothers death at the age of 94 years. She also attended the Oliver United Church until her illness overtook her. Rae-Ann loved painting and riding her own Harley. Her love of cowboys was because her dad was a cowboy growing up on the farm in Saskatchewan. The family would like to extend sincere thanks to Pastor Ann White, Dr. Tom Francis for his many years of excellent medical care, and to Nunes-Pottinger Funeral Service for their kindness, help and thoughtfulness, in making arrangements so much easier.
