Relation: We grew up in Hammond B.C. Family friends

I am saddened to see this notice. Ron was a wonderful, happy guy who brought fun to any gathering whether it was family or friends. Michelle & Gavin please pass on my condolences to Donna, Jack and the rest of your extended families. Sending my love to you all and hugs to you. Diane . xo

Tribute from Robert & Robin Reid

Relation: friend

Sorry for your loss. We have many warm memories of Ron. I remember our school days and playing baseball against each other - Haney vs. Hammond. Then those wonderful get togethers at Christmas time in later years. Ron was a very special person. All our condolences.

Tribute from Carla

Relation: Friend

So sorry to gear of Ron's passing. He will be missed. xo

Tribute from Daphne Lee Fisher

Relation: School Friend

Ron attended Maple Ridge High with me. I have many memories of him and Dona's sense of humour!

We live in Kelowna now and on a visit to Osooyos to the great Italian restaurant there, I asked the owner who was visiting each table if he knew Ron, the answer was "Yes, he is very generous and comical, they were just in here celebrating his wife's birthday"! Small world but Ron was larger than life and a privilege to have known him. Love to all his family. XX

Tribute from HOLLEY NIELSEN

Relation: FAMILY FRIEND

My late father Ron Nielsen and Ron Fournier were fast friends in the early 60"s. As neighbours on Grover Ave, Donna and Ron spent many evenings playing cards and laughing with my parents. As I grew up I remember babysitting Michelle. Mom is still with us but sweetly demented, but I know she would smile and say God Speed.

Tribute from David & Krista Miller

Relation: Neighbour

Ron was a great man, he's laugh was very contagious... We'll miss him yelling hello from across the vineyard.... You'll be missed...
